

Speed riding

This activity, done in winter, consists in skiing and flying along an off slope, with a light harness and a small wing (10 to 14m²) easy to pilot, on authorized areas.

The purpose is not to gain height for a long time, but to play with the terrain as a freeride skier would, and to slide fast with a “touch and go” style and a “flare” landing. Also when it is windy, you can use the snow kite technic to play in the wind pulling edges.

Programme (we advice to practice 1 to 3 days and then rest for a day)

We practice speed riding at "Le Tour" resort, so the meeting will be at Le Tour or Vallorcine.

Progression is at your own pace and follows the steps of the FFVL speedriding passeport, adapted to your current level as well as the topological and aerological specificities of our sites. Acquisition of automatism by repeating the basic movements.

Being aware of the legal obligations associated to the sport, being able to prepare your equipment and go through your check list

Learning to inflate your wing, balance pendulum movements and steering whilst sliding down small slopes. When in contact with the ground, gravity induced sliding: course control, exploration of the different glide angles (first sensations of flight) and the following of a straight trajectory with an objectif of dyanamic take-off or sequence of ski turns via wing control (pitching-rolling- yawning), being on control of your speed ... Depending on the wind: aero-towed skiing (wind-kite technique): learning to inflate and take-down the wing with no spinnaker effect, learning to place the wing within the wind window.

The instructor will be pleased to adapt to your current experience and level. If you are a paraglider, skydiver, kitesurfer or freerider, access to the different runs in le Tour can be done within 2 to 4 days at the Posette school slope.

Level required & physical conditions

- You have to be a good skier (level “class 3 adult” , certified by a ski school or a ski instructor is demanded after the two first discovery days if you want to continue your progression).
- No flying experience is necessary.
- It is accessible to all, from 16 years-old (with compulsory parental authorisation for minors).
- A medical certificate which stipulates that you can speed-ride is required for delivery of the licence & insurance (except if you only do 2 unique discovering days with the “journée contact” insurance).
- Flying is a voluntary act outside of everyday life. Your progress in this activity will depend on your motivation and engagement. You are the only pilot on board!
- You are conscious that you will be on an off-piste area and that you are responsible for your own actions.
